Welcome to November (aka 1.5 months until winter break). There are still a lot of things to fill your proverbial plate before you inevitably gorge yourself on the meal of the year and remain immobile while watching football.

Speaking of football, thank you to everyone who sacrificed precious tailgating hours last Saturday to help us achieve our fundraising goals. Because of your help, we can organize some great events such as the annual holiday party!

We are currently planning to hold the festivities either Friday or Saturday of the first weekend of December (hopefully we have that SEC Championship to take into consideration!). More information will be included in upcoming newsletters.

In need of karma points? Later this month, the Moore School will be holding a Thanksgiving food drive. It’s a ways off, but it’s never too early to start tossing in an extra box of cereal or can of soup into your shopping cart.
