Remembering Josh Kirkman

The Moore School remembers Josh Kirkman, a beloved member of the IMBA Class of 2011. To those close to him, Josh was a kind soul, a shoulder to lean on, a world traveler, a dry wit, a thoughtful observer, and a lover of good times. Although his life was cut short, we know he lived every moment to the fullest, especially in China, a land that he loved dearly. Josh's friends will be gathering at Publick House (located at 2307 Devine Street) on Wednesday, October 7th from 9:30 to 10:30 PM, to share their favorite stories and memories, as well as honor the great life he led. Feel free to join us to laugh, cry, smile and remember.

Upcoming Events

Fri. Happy hour at Back Porch. 7pm.
Sat. Tailgating for USC vs. SC State. 4pm. Game at 7pm.
10/31 Halloween party. TBA.
11/13 Diwali. Capstone 6pm-8pm.
TBA Cultural potluck dinner. Coming soon.

Visit Our Website www.imba-sa.org

T-Shirts & Other Updates

Get in your entries for the IMBA t-shirt design contest. Take a look at designs from previous years and create your own. One of your designs will end up as this year’s IMBA t-shirt.

Join us for happy hour this Friday at Back Porch at 7pm. Drink specials include $2 domestics and house liquors as well as $8 Natty Light buckets and $9 Bud/Bud Light buckets.

Our next tailgating will be this Saturday as we play SC State. Come out and join us at 4pm and be sure to attend the game at 7pm.

Other events coming up are the Halloween Party on 10/31 and the Diwali celebration on 11/13. Also, we will be having a cultural potluck dinner. More information on these events as they draw closer.

For newsletter comments and questions, contact Kelly Truesdale or Erin Smith.